A cafe with a twist on Chicano culture, the space houses murals by different artists as well as Mexican/Chicano art.
- 6 THORN BREWING
1745 National Avenue
This 40,000-square-foot former factory now includes a production facility and tasting room, with a bar made from a repurposed horse trailer. The Barrio Logan location now includes Sideyard BBQ by HottMess, an all-outdoor restaurant featuring a menu of Texas-style barbeque.
- 7 LOS PATIOS (UNDER CONSTRUCTION)
1776 National Avenue
Designed by Hector Perez and Kate Meairs, 2021
Los Patios is a mixed-use development set to open in 2021. The project is organized around a central patio which doubles as communal space and surface parking for the residents.
- 8 MONARCH SCHOOL
1625 Newton Avenue, 2013
The Monarch School is one of a handful of its kind in the United States, created to educate homeless children. The facility includes two resource centers, a library, tutoring center, and classrooms with natural lighting. The lobby and auditorium are atrium spaces with skylights to create an inviting, comfortable environment for students, faculty, and staff.
- 9 M.W. STEELE GROUP
1805 Newton Avenue
The building began life in 1961 as a printing company followed by Basile Studios and in 2009, the MW Steele Group. Local lore tells that Shepard Fairey, the renowned American contemporary street artist, and founder of OBEY may have learned silk screening as an intern at the original printing company.
- 10 RYAN BROS. COFFEE
1894 Main Street, 2003
This locally owned and operated coffee roaster moved into its current headquarters in Barrio Logan in 2003. With a strong sense of history, this location has become the pride of the neighborhood.
- 11 MERCADO DEL BARRIO
1101 Cesar E. Chavez Parkway
Safdie Rabines Architects/Spurlock Landscape Architects, 2013
Estrella de Mercado provides 92 units of affordable housing for San Diego families within a mixed-use center that includes a much-needed neighborhood grocery store. The designers collaborated with regional and local artists to incorporate murals and mosaics into the design, reflecting nearby Chicano Park.
- 12 TECTURE
2001 Main Street, Suite A
This Orchid award-winning studio, housed in an 11,000-square-foot warehouse complex, includes an in-house fabrication shop, allowing a direct dialogue between the design and fabrication of each piece.
- 13 WOODBURY UNIVERSITY
2212 Main Street | Rinehart Herbst | Established 1946, Renovation 2007
Woodbury University's distinctive, faculty-designed San Diego campus in a former industrial space includes classrooms, studios, a digital fabrication lab, metal and wood shops, and a library.
- 14 LWP GROUP
2632 National Avenue
L.W.P. Group's offices are true to their mission of creating experience driven concepts and reinvigorating spaces. By incorporating a gallery, event space and a rental unit, they achieve an eclectic urban mix that is reflected in the innovative street art and unconventional use of materials.
- 15 CAFÉ MOTO
2619 National Avenue
The cafe features new and vintage soap box derby cars as well as vintage motorcycles and sustainable made furniture.
- 16 LA ESQUINA
2222 Logan Avenue | Hector Perez, Designer, 2012
La Esquina (the corner) offers seven double-height, naturally ventilated live-workspaces with mezzanines and adjacent patio decks. Colors and materials pay homage to Barrio Logan's cultural history.
- 17 CHICANO PARK
1949 Logan Avenue, 1970
Established by Chicano activists on April 22, 1970, Chicano Park has received international recognition as a major public art site for its monumental murals.
- 18 BREAD & SALT
1955 Julian Avenue | Established 1896/Public Architecture, 2013
Bread & Salt is a 45,000 square-foot gallery and experimental center for the arts. Comprised of multiple galleries, studios, and event spaces, it serves as a cultural hub and gathering place for the region's creative community.
